Cresswell Pond

Access/entrances:

The entrance to the reserve is off the farm track to Blakemoor Farm, about 1km north of Cresswell Village. Parking is limited to the entrance to the farm track.

Entry is via a wide latch gate, with two small stone steps down onto an earth path.

Terrain:

Terrain is generally flat and even.

Paths:

A level path between 50-120cm wide leads to the hide. A boardwalk/ramp leads up to the hide, with a handrail. Alternatively, the pond can be observed from the public footpath at the north end of the reserve.

Facilities:

The hide is accessed via a ramp and offers good views over the pond.
